Membership restrictions and agreement

The membership is purchased only for the person or persons listed on this agreement. Memberships are non-transferable. The benefits of the agreement are solely for the use of the listed members only. Membership privileges will be revoked if a member is found to be actively offering his/her membership benefits to non-member player or players. For example: Letting someone else use the membership card. The member is responsible for signing a Release and Waiver on each visit to the playing field. Members will be issued a membership card which they are responsible for keeping. The membership card should be carried by the player when at the field or store for the purpose of identifying themselves as a member. Additional identification may be asked for at the time of registration or purchase. Replacement charge for a lost Membership card is $5.00
